Coral Princess

Coral Princess blends the exotic (international staff, an elegant Italian restaurant, celebrity-style spa treatments) and the familiar (ubiquitous buffets, poolside umbrella drinks and, yes, bingo). The ship is a vacation destination that offers up a pleasing amount of glitz yet makes passengers feel right at home.

The 91,627-ton ship, built just trim enough to traverse the Panama Canal, accommodates 1,970 passengers and 900 crewmembers. There is a surprising sense of spaciousness onboard, a function of both design and operational efficiency.
