Mariner of the Seas is in the second generation of Voyager-class vessels, launched in 2003.

Mariner of the Seas is a floating resort at sea, perfect for a relaxing and stress-free holiday. There is something to please every member of the family onboard Mariner of the Seas, with an indulgent spa, a rock-climbing wall, fantastic youth programs, and delicious dining options.

Spend the day onboard Mariner of the Seas in the Royal Promenade, with shopping, bars, and cafes or curl up with a good book in the well-stocked and cozy library. Take in a destination-specific enrichment seminar or try ice skating in Studio B. There's also cruise favourites like bingo, art auctions, and craft workshops daily.

Mariner of the Seas has four pools and six whirlpools, each with designated atmospheres from lap swimming to water sports. Take on the rock climbing wall and the nine hole mini-golf course. The Solarium is a tranquil adults-only retreat with plush lounges and a whirlpool, ideal for getting away for some peace. Vitality Spa offers beauty and wellness treatments including massages, acupuncture, and hairstyling.

At night, Mariner of the Seas entertainment focuses around unwinding in the many onboard lounges, nightclubs, and theatres. The main show lounge, the Savoy Theatre, features Broadway-style revues and performers. The Lotus Lounge is a lively dance club with karaoke competitions, and Studio B has adults-only comedy shows. Ellington's has a special martini menu, and Dragon's Lair is a gothic themed disco for late-night dancing.
